

Alert Waterloo Region subscription form

Overview

Alert Waterloo Region is a service that allows residents to receive important public safety messages in the event of large scale emergencies such as floods, severe weather, or significant power outages. Notifications can be delivered to home phones, mobile phones, text and email.

This service will only notify addresses within Waterloo Region and therefore you must subscribe with an address located in Waterloo Region. If you enter an address located outside of Waterloo Region you will not receive notifications.

Please deliver or mail your completed form to: The Regional Municipality of Waterloo, Manager, Emergency Management Office, 150 Frederick Street, Kitchener, ON N2G 4J3. You can also sign up online at www.alertwr.ca.

It may take two to four weeks for your completed subscription form to be processed.

If you are under 18 years old, you agree that you have the consent of your parent or legal guardian to use the service. The services are not intended for children under the age of 13. If you are under the age of 13 years of age, then please do not register or use the service.

How is my information used?

The information you provide when you register is collected and used in connection with your use of the service for The Regional Municipality of Waterloo ("Region"), the Police, and Cities and Townships within the Region of Waterloo and will be used to notify the public during large scale emergencies pursuant to the Emergency Management & Civil Protection Act, 1990, s. 3(1). The personal information collected on this form is provided to the Region, Police and the Cities and Townships within the Region of Waterloo, who may also send alerts through this system, both to residents of their own municipality and in some cases to persons outside their municipality. In such cases, they will have access to the information of the individuals to whom their alert is sent. This information may be processed by the Region's third party service provider. This collection of information is in compliance with the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and the Ontario Municipal Act and is under the legal authority of the Emergency Management & Civil Protection Act.

Questions about handling of your personal information should be addressed to the following: The Regional Municipality of Waterloo, Manager, Emergency Management Office, 5th Floor, 150 Frederick Street Kitchener, ON N2G 4J3, 519-575-4400, or by email emergencymanagement@regionofwaterloo.ca
